A teacher, Charles Melang, has been engaged for the club by KATHRYN CRAVENS. 8:30 P.M. is the time.....until closing. LARRY BLOCHMAN, House Committee chairman, will dispense refreshments at the usual rate. Other more strenuous games may be started in the back room.

The clubrooms are now spick-and-span with new paint, new drapes, refinished furniture, etc. Everything is ready for the coming season.

MORGAN BEATTY, NBC Washington, this year is making a tour of the world's main cities. He has just finished St. Louis, Louisville and London -- the rest of the year will take him to points east, south, north and west.

CROSWELL BOWEN of the New Yorker is committee chairman for the 35th anniversary celebration of the American Field Service, to be held at the Old Knickerbocker Music Hall on Monday, Oct. 17 at 9 P.M. Staged for the benefit of the AFS International Scholarship Program, this gala dance can be attended for six dollars. Call OR 9-1897 for reservations.

LOWELL THOMAS, en route to the U.S. from India and Tibet, wired BILL SHIRER that the only American book he found in the Tibetan city of Ghatsa on the Upper Amo river was a dog-eared copy of "Berlin Diary".

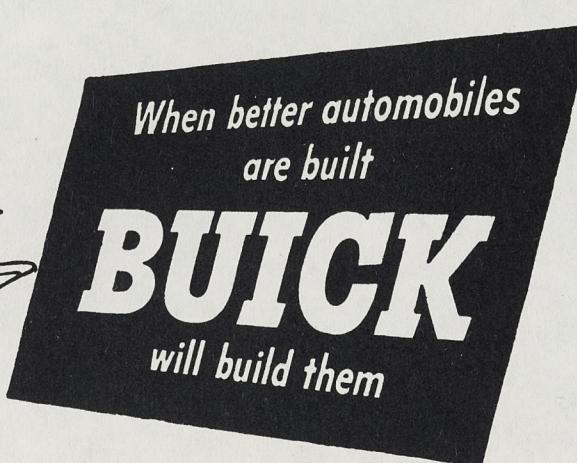

MEMBERS OF THE OPC enjoyed the General Electric television set in the clubrooms which enabled them to follow the World Series -- even the painters cleaning the walls in the Times Building had to peek in every inning or so to get the score.

The Magazine of Fantasy, a slickish 35¢ quarterly, is now being published by LAWRENCE SPIVAK, editor of the American Mercury, the American Mercury Mysteries and Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine. The new contender for thriller readership will be edited by Anthony Boucher and J. Francis McComas.

MARY HEATON VORSE is in Pittsburgh covering the steel strike. She returned recently from Mexico where she was writing some feature articles -- a job made difficult by a since-healed smashed elbow.

LANDRUM BOLLING of the Overseas News Agency left this week for a several months European assignment. BOLLING has been organizing the new international service of ONA here at the home office.

WEILDON JAMES, editor of the Louisville Times and Courier Journal, will lead one of the editorial page critiques at the National Conference of Editorial Writers session at Columbia University from Oct. 19 to 22. He will be staying at the Hotel New Weston.

RALPH JULES FRANTZ, Club Treasurer, is on a three-week trip with his wife to the Middle West and South.....MRS. HENRY NOBLE HALL is now living at 158 W. 58th St. - Telephone - CI 5-5755..... A. WILFRED MAY, editor of the Commercial and Financial Chronicle is on a speaking tour in the Middle West. His two subjects are "The Devaluation Significance" and "Welfare Statism Abroad".

CATHERINE COYNE, (now Mrs. Eugene A. Hudson) formerly of the Boston Herald, has left active newspaper work for domesticity and part-time editing of the monthly news bulletin of the New England Medical Center.

WILLIAM B. ZIFF's new book, "He, The Maker", has just been published by Argus Books, Inc.... SAM POPE BREWER of the New York Times is in the States on a short vacation. He is also the father of a baby girl, reported to be a beauty.

REYNOLDS PACKARD, now the proud owner of a beard, protested recently to Mike Frankovitch, when he eliminated "Pack" from the role of the Daily American reporter in "The Dark Road" because he feared Pack's beard would make the audience think the American reporter was a Russian. Pack's reply cites other bearded bedecked correspondents abroad (unlike the clean-shaven, go-getter police reporter type) JACK THOMPSON of the Chicago Tribune; ROBERT ST. JOHN; SEDLEY PECK, formerly of the Paris Times; George Slocombe of the Herald-Tribune, to name a few.

In transatlantic travel the feature story is American Flagships!

• As EXPERIENCED world travelers you are already familiar with the advantages of transatlantic travel by American Airlines Flagship—comfort, service, speed and frequency of flights. Now American is proud to announce another step forward.

Beginning in mid-August, American will place into service its new Boeing Stratocruisers. These double-decked luxury liners of the air will initiate an entirely new era in overseas travel. The next time you go, fly American!

AMERICAN AIRLINES

REYNOLDS further remembered that - during the internment of American correspondents in Siena, - the Beard was The Thing. HERBERT MATTHEWS of the New York Times; RICHARD MASSOCK of AP, now in Venezuela; Camilla Cianfarra of the New York Telegram, Livingston Pomeroy and Alan Tulska of the UP, all sprouted them. According to Pack, foreign correspondents become philosophical, more literary and excellent gourmets; more interested in the story than the scoop and less inhibited about what they do.

Besides working on the book for the past year, "Wert" wrote an article on the fiesta of San Fermin in Pamplona and another on Portugal, both of which appeared recently in Holiday. On their property, the Wertenbakers have a real ivory tower which has a view of Spain from one side and Biarritz from the other.

GLIMPSED around at the October 5 luncheon at Rosoff's restaurant were EDGAR SNOW of the Satevepost; Dick Lauterback; "Cy" Peterman of the Philadelphia Inquirer; MIKE BESSIE of Harper's; BEACH CONGER of the New York Herald Tribune; BOB ECKHOUSE; JACK DOORTY; etc. The jackpot book, John Harvey's "Dublin", presented by LARRY AUDRAIN, was won by BEA MATHIEU.

BILL COSTELLO, CBS correspondent in Tokyo, said that, after his trip through Southeast Asia, he felt that people there were fearful of Chinese-Communist infiltration now that Red troops have occupied such a large part of the country. However, as the Chinese have a monetary value for every human sentiment, perhaps Communism cannot conquer them. COSTELLO said he had had some differences of opinion with General MacArthur, who is not an intimate of anyone; even his wife calls him "General, dear."

A. T. Steele of the New York Herald Tribune, just returned from China, said Communist troops had been very polite in entering most Chinese towns. Gradually, control tightened up and correspondents were forbidden to collect and send stories. Most American correspondents, free to depart, left because they could not continue to work effectively.

STEELE reported that lots of Russian goods are coming into China - such as caviar and Russian motor cars - but that there has been no real reaction from the people as yet. Only the students cheered the well-disciplined troops who marched into Peiping. But it is still too early to judge Chinese public feeling, according to "Arch". Correspondents who tried to get through to the Foreign Affairs Bureau in Peiping were ignored and given a general run-around.
